

ELYSIUM

The ultimate event destination at the heart of the Mediterranean

It is the promise of spectacular contrasts and endless experiential possibilities found across just 300 km of extraordinary landscapes and coastlines, that has lured visitors from all around the world to Cyprus, over the centuries, making it the prevalently popular Group incentive travel and event destination, it is today.

The city of Paphos, on the western shores of the island, is a firm favorite for organizing and hosting international conferences, gala dinners and destination events of all sizes and kinds, attracting hundreds of international participants, every year. As the birthplace of Aphrodite, a UNESCO world heritage site, an advanced European hub of culture and a microcosm of everything that makes Cyprus so special, the city adapts to each and every need, with a sincerely heartfelt welcome and true Mediterranean flair.

Experience the Elysium

At the Elysium, we perfectly understand the unique experiential proposition of Cyprus and are dedicated to complementing and enhancing it as much as possible, by making the most of everything Paphos has to offer and creating a five-star setting for first-class events of all types. Here, planners and delegates can harness outstanding services and all-encompassing support, so that they can see their vision come to fruition from beginning to end, whatever the happening.

From intimate team-building activities to full blown operettas, the Elysium undertakes every detail, treating guests to an exclusively high-end combination of luxury and peace of mind that always surpasses expectations. Graciously welcoming visitors with grand interiors, serene pools and a world-class spa, the Hotel's full range of facilities and fervent personnel create an unrivaled caliber of excellence which is ideal for hosting truly great and stress-free events, which are always delivered with unmitigated professionalism.

5-Star dining

The Elysium Hotel is known for its highly acclaimed fine-dining options, designed to satisfy each and every guest, and your event attendees are no exception. If you wish to add a banqueting, dining, brunching or even light snacking element to your happening, you have five highly acclaimed gourmet restaurants to help you, offering an extensive variety of cuisines, including Italian, Pan-Asian, and Cypriot. Our Executive Chef's passion and determination to make the most of farm-to-table dining, with A-grade ingredients shines through each effort to bring innovative, fusion or traditional but always delicious culinary creations, to life.

Plan every tiny detail with our specialised team

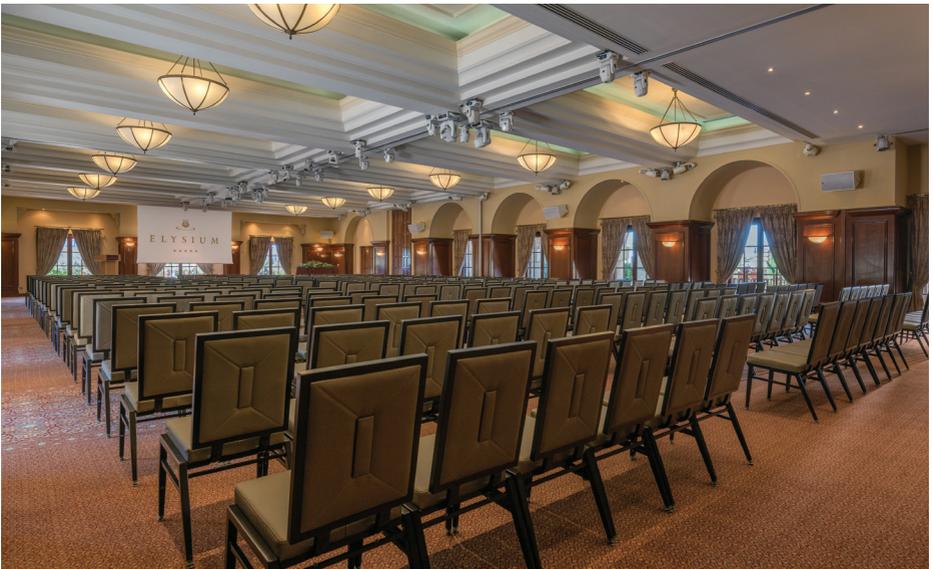

At the very core of the Elysium promise, is a commitment to help design, enjoy and savour extraordinary moments, in an environment that caters to every need, surrounded by people dedicated to indulging every desire and enjoying experiences that will stay with you forever.

This is why the Hotel makes sure these experiences are not only hosted in outstanding venues, but also reinforced by passionate highly-skilled consultants and personalized services which cover each and every aspect of planning with A to Z support. From grand gala dinners and private parties to product launches, fashion shows, incentive travel, top-level conferences, high-stake meetings or round-table discussions, the 5-star Elysium event experience secures everything you may possibly need to create and enjoy unforgettable events, surpassed only by the Hotel's unrivalled signature of excellence.

A venue for every occasion

Numerous functional venues are available, all carefully designed to cater to your every need and effectively host your most important personal or professional happenings. With flexible adaptability, premium facilities and impeccable service, you can access everything you need to secure a remarkable end-result that leaves a lasting impact on all attendees, no matter the size or nature of your event.

Palatian venues of every size

E L Y S I U M

Big or small, personal or corporate, from an intimate group of 5 guests up to an elaborate gathering of a few hundred: no matter the size or nature, all of the Elysium's function venues have been vibrantly created to offer you the ultimate in comfort.

Basilica Ballroom

The Basilica Ballroom embraces its visitors with majestic Byzantine décor and elegantly classic design with an attached terrace, interiors that resemble an arcade basilica and elaborate tapestry woven into the lush carpeting.

The spacious pillar-free hall includes a separate entrance and can be divided into three smaller breakout rooms, ideal for banquets, conferences and smaller meetings or receptions for 40-400 participants.

Equipped with state-of-the-art audiovisual equipment including professional lighting that can be made available and tailored to your needs, the Basilica ballroom makes an instant and immediate impression on all its guests.

The Ballroom includes an indoor foyer that can be used as a meeting area for coffee breaks, registrations, prefunction gatherings, exhibitions and much more.

Templar Halls 1 & 2

Perfect for small-sized functions, Templar Halls 1 & 2 are suitable for boardrooms meetings, small group session breakout rooms from larger conferences hosted in other Halls, corporate launches or business meetings.

With a 40 person theatre set-up capacity per venue, both Templar Halls boast effortless flexibility, with the potential of combining their spaces to make a unified singular larger venue with an adjoining terrace, which can accommodate up to 90.

Messina Hall

Classical arches inlaid with antique gold mirrors, paneled effect on the ceiling and marble flooring, give the Messina Hall its dignified archetypal character that is ideal for graceful corporate or entertainment use.

The room exudes a unique sense of intimacy offering a quality space that is perfect for smaller events and exclusive gatherings with a 70-person theatre set-up capacity.
